

-
- The diagram illustrates three nested rectangular areas on a white page. The outermost area is a solid blue square, representing the bleed area. Inside it is a white square with a black border, representing the final size. The innermost area is a white square with a pink border, representing the safe area. A legend to the right of the rectangles identifies each area with a colored square and text.
-  Bleed Area
 -  Final Size
 -  Safe Area